

Bio:

Barbara Kjarbo is the Affordable Housing Manager with Housing Nova Scotia, and works closely with both experienced and novice developers of multi-unit residential properties to create new affordable housing units across the province in both rural and urban areas. She has worked with Housing Nova Scotia for nine years in a variety of roles, and has experience delivering emergency home repair programs and administering the regional social housing portfolio in HRM. Expanding affordable housing options for Nova Scotian families, seniors, and disabled persons builds healthy, prosperous communities, and Barbara has helped finance projects ranging from school conversions and vacant building renovations to construction of a 10-storey apartment building.
