

Marco Civitarese is a Manager and Chief Building Official who has worked in different departments and varied capacities in the City of Calgary for over 30 years. He has participated in numerous initiatives, industry partnerships, investigations, and educational forums over his career.